SPONSORSHIP PACKAGE

<https://www.abundanceofhopecenter.org/>

Abundance of Hope Center is a non- profit organization dedicated to enriching the lives of at risk youth. We provide services and resources to children and youth age 12- 25 whose lives have been affected by oppression, sexual exploitation, human trafficking, homelessness and abuse. Our mission is to empower our most At Risk Youth with positive and productive life skills most beneficial to self and community.

Abundance of Hope Center (AofH) is a gender neutral establishment that provides a warm and welcoming environment to homeless and At Risk Youth. Program participants are offered a system of support and a safe place to access housing options and a range of services including:

- Goal setting
- Advocacy
- Educational workshops
- Community resources and referral
- Basic hygiene supplies
- Clothing
- Child care resources
- Positive reproduction education
- Life skills
- Job readiness
- Rental assistance
- Food and other supportive service indicative to self empowerment and sustainability.

In addition to the benefit of our service, Participants engage with skilled and genuinely caring staff who are culturally sensitive, competent and dedicated to serving and empowering the marginalized population.

Abundance of Hope Center's "House Hope" is our Drop -in Resource center and is designed to help homeless youth age 12-25 quickly exit homelessness and return to permanent housing; by assisting participants in quickly identify housing options, provide move in and rental assistance when needed, and provide case management and supportive services. Participants can access services through our support line, community or staff referral, and walk-ins.

Once involved in our program, AofH Advocates work with participants to quickly establish housing eligibilities, housing leads, provide rental assistance for move-ins, as well as intensive age appropriate, customized case management, and support services to ensure housing stability. Through supportive services, advocacy based counselling and educational groups, youth will gain the necessary tools for conducting a healthy social, emotional, financial, and cognitive life.

Participants will engage in experiences such as community service projects, volunteer and employment placement, aptitude and learning style tests in addition to nutritional education and group meditations. While exits to permanent housing are our goal using a holistically approach with the participants mental, physical emotional health in mind being essential. In addition to housing and advocacy services, AofH center will be open for the community daily serving free meals, offering workshops around rent readiness, job readiness and more.

Sponsoring Abundance of Hope Center offers you or your organization a chance to actively participate in the life enrichment of At Risk Youth and affect the community in a positive and tangible way. Our sponsors and donors can be assured that their funds will be allocated towards ensuring that the needs of our participants are met and that our community connects and thrives.
